BOOKING & DAMAGE DEPOSIT

£250.00

Received Saturday, 14 February 2026, so there is nothing to pay to confirm the booking. Held separately from the event price and refundable after the event, less any documented deductions.

The booking and damage deposit is separate from the event price. It cannot be used towards the event balance, bar spend, catering, entertainment, venue hire, supplier charges or any other event cost. If the event proceeds as booked, the deposit will be processed for refund within 48 hours after the event, less any documented deductions.

WHAT'S INCLUDED – AND WHAT'S NOT

Only the items, services, spaces, packages and vendors listed in this booking are included. Unless the booking says otherwise, standard venue hire includes tables and chairs, basic room layout, bar service, the setup and clear-down access shown in your booking details above (one hour either side of the booking unless we have agreed otherwise in writing), use of toilets, use of the booked area, normal cleaning after ordinary use, and the General Manager or duty manager as your event contact.

The following are not included unless explicitly itemised:

- Waiting staff or table service
 - Linen, decorations and centrepieces
 - Catering
 - DJ, band or other entertainment
 - Projector, screen or microphone
- Photography or videography
 - Security
 - Private bar or exclusive venue hire
 - Extra setup or clear-down time
 - Removal of rubbish from outside food, decorations or supplier items

All values in the table above exclude VAT. The VAT shown is the VAT included in the event price on page 1, and the event price, excluding deposit, is the same figure as the financial summary on page 1.

This schedule covers the event price only. The booking and damage deposit of £250.00 is not part of the event price and is not included in the figures above. It is shown separately on page 1, where it is added to give the total to pay before the event.

DEPOSIT INFORMATION

A booking and damage deposit is required to secure the date and time shown in this contract. The deposit secures the booking, removes the date and time from general availability, and protects The Anchor against reasonable cancellation losses, damage, missing items, specialist cleaning, unauthorised overtime, unpaid charges, supplier costs, special-order items and other sums arising from the event.

The booking is not confirmed until the deposit has been received in cleared funds and The Anchor has issued written confirmation. Before payment, The Anchor may place a provisional hold on the date and time. A provisional hold is not a confirmed booking and may be released if the deposit is not received in cleared funds by the hold expiry date, unless The Anchor agrees otherwise in writing.

The deposit is separate from and additional to the event price. It cannot be used as payment towards the event balance, bar spend, catering, entertainment, venue hire, supplier charges or any other event cost.

If the event proceeds as booked, The Anchor will process the deposit refund within 48 hours after the event, provided the full balance has been paid, all agreed charges have been settled, and no deductions are required. The Anchor may use this 48-hour period to inspect the premises and complete cleaning checks.

Any proposed deduction will be documented and discussed with the Host before it is made. Ordinary incidental wear and minor glass breakages are not charged. Where sums owed exceed the deposit, the Host must pay the balance on demand.

AGREEMENT

I, Priyanka Raghunathan-Whitfield, agree to engage Orange Jelly Limited trading as The Anchor Pub to host my event described as "40th birthday party" on Saturday, 20 June 2026 from 6pm to 11:30pm at The Anchor, Horton Road, Stanwell Moor Village, Surrey, TW19 6AQ.

I agree to pay the event price of £2609.40 (including VAT) and the separate booking and damage deposit of £250.00. I understand that the deposit is separate from and additional to the event price and cannot be used towards the event balance or any other charge.

The full event balance, final guest numbers, catering choices, supplier details, entertainment details, decoration plans, running order, allergy information, dietary requirements and accessibility requirements are due no later than Saturday, 6 June 2026, unless The Anchor has agreed a different written deadline.

If I provide final details late, I understand The Anchor will try to help where reasonably possible, but preferred menus, suppliers, layouts, timings, equipment or other options may no longer be available. If essential details or payment remain outstanding after reminder and General Manager review, The Anchor may treat the booking as cancelled by me.

By signing below, paying the deposit, or otherwise confirming the booking in writing after receiving this Agreement, I confirm that I have read, understood and agree to be bound by this Agreement and its terms and conditions.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

THE PARTIES AND DEFINITIONS

In this Agreement, "The Anchor", "we", "us" and "our" mean Orange Jelly Limited trading as The Anchor Pub, company registration number 10537179, VAT number GB315203647, of The Anchor, Horton Road, Stanwell Moor Village, Surrey, TW19 6AQ. "Host" means the person booking and accepting responsibility for the event. "Agreement" means the booking agreement, these terms, and any signed annex or approved booking schedule. "Event" means the private booking described in the booking schedule.

RESERVATION AND DEPOSIT

A booking and damage deposit is required to secure the date and time shown in the booking schedule, unless the financial summary states that no deposit is payable. Before payment, The Anchor may place a provisional hold on the date and time. A provisional hold is not a confirmed booking and may be released if the deposit is not received in cleared funds by the hold expiry date, unless The Anchor agrees otherwise in writing. The booking is confirmed only when the deposit has been received in cleared funds and The Anchor has issued written confirmation.

The deposit is separate from and additional to the event price and cannot be used towards the event balance, bar spend, catering, entertainment, venue hire, supplier charges or any other event cost. If the event proceeds as booked, the deposit refund is processed within 48 hours after the event, provided the full balance has been paid, all agreed charges have been settled and no deductions are required. The Anchor may use this 48-hour period to inspect the premises and complete cleaning checks.

Any proposed deduction will be documented and discussed with the Host before it is made. Ordinary incidental wear and minor glass breakages are not charged. Where sums owed exceed the deposit, the Host must pay the balance on demand.

CANCELLATION

The Host may cancel only by written notice, sent by email to manager@the-anchor.pub or by WhatsApp or text message to a number used by The Anchor for the booking. A telephone call alone does not cancel the booking. The cancellation date is the date and time The Anchor receives the written cancellation.

If the Host cancels 30 calendar days or more before the event, The Anchor will refund the deposit less a 5% administration deduction calculated from the deposit and any direct costs, supplier charges, staffing costs, special-order items, payment costs or other costs already incurred or committed in connection with the booking.

If the Host cancels less than 30 calendar days before the event, The Anchor may retain up to the full deposit to cover reasonable losses and costs arising from the cancellation, including lost availability, administration, staffing, supplier costs, special-order items and other committed costs. The Anchor will not retain more than is reasonable in the circumstances and will not charge twice for the same loss.

If the Host fails to attend, fails to pay the balance by the due date, or fails to provide essential final details after reminder and General Manager review, The Anchor may treat the booking as cancelled by the Host and apply this cancellation policy.

Cancellation does not release the Host from sums already due or reasonably incurred before cancellation. Any balance paid for services not provided will be reviewed and refunded where appropriate, less any sums The Anchor is entitled to retain or recover under this Agreement or applicable law. Where required by law, The Anchor will take reasonable steps to reduce its losses, including re-selling the date where practical.

DATE CHANGES

Date changes must be requested in writing and are subject to availability. A date change is not confirmed unless The Anchor confirms it in writing. Where a date change is requested at least 14 calendar days before the event, The Anchor will make reasonable efforts to accommodate the request if a suitable date is available. The Host remains responsible for any financial impact, including supplier, entertainer, staffing, stock, special-order, administration and price increase costs.

A request made less than 14 calendar days before the event may be refused or treated as cancellation unless The Anchor agrees otherwise in writing.

PAYMENT AND FINAL DETAILS

The full event balance must be paid no later than 14 calendar days before the event unless otherwise stated in this contract. Final guest numbers, catering choices, supplier details, entertainment details, decoration plans, running order, allergy information, dietary requirements and accessibility requirements must also be confirmed by that date.

After the final details deadline, The Anchor may commit staffing, catering, stock and suppliers based on the information provided. Reductions after the deadline do not automatically reduce the event price. Increases are subject to capacity, staffing, stock, supplier availability and any additional charges. Late requirements cannot always be guaranteed, but The Anchor will consider reasonable adjustments and practical changes where possible.

ADDITIONAL CHARGES

The Host must pay any agreed additional charges and any reasonable costs caused by the Host, guests, suppliers, entertainers or contractors.

Approved high-power or amplified equipment, including DJ, band, lighting, inflatable, bouncy castle or similar equipment, attracts a £25 electricity charge. The Anchor may refuse, limit, disconnect or require removal of equipment that is unsafe, excessive, not PAT-tested where applicable, likely to overload circuits, likely to cause nuisance, or not approved in advance.

Additional staffing, where required or agreed, is charged at £20 per staff-hour unless agreed otherwise in writing. Extra venue hire time is subject to availability, General Manager approval and the applicable space hire rate. Specialist cleaning, damage, missing items, supplier costs and special-order costs may be charged at the reasonable cost incurred. Any proposed deduction from the deposit will be documented and discussed with the Host before it is made.

OUTSIDE FOOD AND EXTERNAL CATERING

Outside food, self-catering and external caterers are allowed only with prior written approval from The Anchor. Where outside food is approved, the Host must sign the self-catering and outside food responsibility agreement before the event.

The Anchor provides no kitchen access, food preparation facilities, heating facilities, refrigeration, freezer space or storage for outside food. Slow cookers, hot plates, heated trays and similar equipment are not permitted. The Host and any external caterer are responsible for the purchase, preparation, transport, storage, presentation, service, allergen information, safety and removal of outside food, and outside food and associated rubbish must be removed at the end of the event unless The Anchor agrees otherwise in writing.

External caterers must be pre-approved and must provide documents requested by The Anchor no later than 14 calendar days before the event, including public liability insurance, food hygiene evidence, food business registration where applicable, risk assessments, method statements and allergen information.

ENTERTAINMENT & EQUIPMENT

Entertainment, DJs, bands, live music, recorded music, karaoke, quizzes, inflatables, AV equipment and other external equipment must be approved in advance. The Host must provide supplier details and required documents no later than 14 calendar days before the event. The Anchor may refuse entry to any unapproved supplier or equipment.

Equipment requiring electricity must be approved in advance, safe, well maintained and PAT-tested where applicable. The Anchor may refuse, limit, disconnect or require removal of unsafe, excessive or unapproved equipment. All entertainment and equipment must comply with the premises licence, noise controls, public nuisance requirements, safety requirements, setup and clear-down times, and staff instructions.

DECORATION AND SETUP

Decoration plans must be agreed in advance. No unapproved furniture, equipment, decorations, fixtures or fittings are permitted. Confetti cannons, glitter, glue dots, Sellotape, adhesive tape, Blu Tack, nails, screws, staples, pins, tacks, smoke, powder, pyrotechnics, flame effects, staining products and messy reveal products are not permitted. Open flames are not permitted except brief cake candles under adult supervision.

Decorations must not damage the premises, block exits, obstruct walkways, cover signs, interfere with fire equipment, affect other guests, create a nuisance or breach the premises licence. Set-up and clear-down must be completed within the allocated periods unless The Anchor agrees otherwise in writing; extra time is subject to availability and additional charges.

LICENSING, ALCOHOL AND CONDUCT

The event is subject to the premises licence, licensing law, staff discretion and the licensing objectives. Alcohol: 11.00–00.00 Mon–Thu; 11.00–01.00 Fri–Sat; 12.00–23.30 Sun. Live music/dancing: 19.30–00.00 Mon–Sat; 19.30–23.30 Sun. Recorded music: 11.00–00.00 Mon–Sat; 12.00–23.30 Sun. Late night refreshment: 23.00–00.30 Mon–Thu; 23.00–01.30 Fri–Sat; 23.00–00.00 Sun. Seasonal or non-standard hours apply only where permitted by the premises licence and confirmed by The Anchor in writing.

The Anchor operates Challenge 25. Anyone who appears under 25 may be asked for accepted photographic ID before being served alcohol, and anyone unable to provide accepted ID will be refused alcohol. The Anchor may lawfully refuse service, remove guests, stop music, close the bar or end the event early where reasonably necessary for licensing, safety, public nuisance, intoxication, illegal drugs, suspected underage drinking, suspected proxy purchasing, disorder, harassment, external alcohol, neighbour impact, safeguarding, staff welfare or breach of this Agreement.

Illegal drugs are not permitted. Anyone bringing illegal drugs onto the premises will be asked to leave and may be reported to the police.

CHILDREN AND SUPERVISION

The Host is responsible for the conduct and supervision of all guests, including children and under-18s. The Anchor does not provide childcare or child supervision. Under-18s must be accompanied and supervised by responsible adults. The premises licence admits children only if accompanied and supervised by adults between 11.00 and 21.00, except in the dining area where this extends to 23.00. Children are not allowed in the pool table area unless supervised by an adult.

If responsible adults leave, under-18s in their care may be asked to leave. Children and under-18s must not obstruct normal service, disturb other guests, create safety issues or interfere with other bookings. Nothing in this clause excludes The Anchor's liability for its own negligence or legal duties.

ACCESSIBILITY AND ALLERGIES

Please tell The Anchor about allergy, dietary and accessibility requirements as early as possible and no later than 14 calendar days before the event. The Anchor will make reasonable efforts to accommodate dietary and allergy requirements where it is providing food or drink. Allergen information for The Anchor's food and drink is available at the-anchor.pub.

The Anchor will consider reasonable adjustments for disabled guests. Late requests may limit what can be arranged, but they will still be considered. The main pub area, dining room and garden have step-free access via a ramp or step-free route; the pool table area has a small step. The Anchor does not have accessible toilets — please discuss access needs with the General Manager before booking if this may affect your event.

LIABILITY

Nothing in this Agreement limits or excludes The Anchor's liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, breach of statutory consumer rights that cannot lawfully be limited, or any other liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or restricted.

Subject to that, The Anchor is not responsible for loss, damage, injury, delay, disruption or cost caused by the Host, guests, external suppliers, entertainers or contractors, or by events outside The Anchor's reasonable control. The Anchor is responsible for providing its services with reasonable care and skill, and is not responsible for arrangements or services supplied by the Host's own suppliers unless The Anchor has expressly agreed in writing to provide them.

HOST RESPONSIBILITY AND REIMBURSEMENT

The Host is responsible for the conduct of their guests, suppliers, entertainers and contractors. The Host must reimburse The Anchor for direct and reasonably foreseeable losses, costs, damages, claims, charges and expenses caused by the Host, guests, suppliers, entertainers or contractors, including breach of this Agreement, negligence, deliberate misconduct, damage, missing items, specialist cleaning, unauthorised overtime, external food issues, supplier failures, illegal drugs, external alcohol or breach of venue rules.

This reimbursement obligation does not apply to the extent that the loss or cost was caused by The Anchor's own negligence, breach of contract, breach of statutory duty or other legal responsibility.

FORCE MAJEURE AND VENUE CANCELLATION

Neither party is liable for failure or delay caused by events beyond its reasonable control, including fire, flood, severe weather, power failure, epidemic, act of terrorism, civil disorder, strike, government restriction, licensing restriction or serious safety issue. If the event cannot proceed because of such an event, The Anchor may offer a reasonable alternative date where possible; if no alternative can be agreed, any refund will be assessed according to the services not provided, costs already incurred or committed, and applicable law.

If The Anchor cancels the booking for reasons not caused by the Host and not caused by an event outside The Anchor's reasonable control, The Anchor will offer a reasonable alternative date where possible or refund sums paid for services not provided. The Anchor is not responsible for third-party costs incurred by the Host unless caused by The Anchor's breach or negligence.

COMPLAINTS

Complaints should be sent to manager@the-anchor.pub or to The Anchor, Horton Road, Stanwell Moor Village, Surrey, TW19 6AQ. The Anchor will acknowledge complaints within 3 working days and aims to provide a full response within 10 working days; if more time is needed, The Anchor will explain why and give a revised response date. Complaints are handled by the General Manager. If a complaint cannot be resolved, either party may use the courts of England and Wales.

PRIVACY

The Anchor uses personal data to handle enquiries, manage and deliver bookings, take payments, send booking communications, manage safety and licensing obligations, record allergy, dietary and accessibility requirements, handle complaints, resolve disputes and meet legal and accounting obligations. Where necessary, The Anchor may share relevant information with staff, approved suppliers, payment providers, professional advisers, insurers, licensing authorities, police or other authorities.

Marketing consent is separate from booking acceptance and can be withdrawn at any time. For more information, including retention periods and data rights, see the privacy notice at <https://www.the-anchor.pub/privacy-policy>.

GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement is governed by the laws of England and Wales. The courts of England and Wales have jurisdiction, subject to any mandatory consumer rights that apply.
